

Corporate Governance Codes of Practice

Community Radio Station TAMAR FM 95.3

Community stations vary enormously but all are bound by the Broadcasting Services Act (BSA). It stipulates license conditions, and station and program standards which are generally overseen by the Australian Communications & Media Authority (ACMA). This Code of Practice is a document produced by the community broadcasting sector to meet requirements of the BSA. Tamar FM 95.3 includes adherence to this Code as one of its main operational principals

The guiding principles

- Promote harmony and diversity and contribute to an inclusive, cohesive and culturally-diverse Australian community
- Pursue the principles of democracy, access and equity, especially for people and issues not adequately represented in other media
- Enhance the diversity of programming choices available to the public and present programs that expand the variety of viewpoints broadcast in Australia
- Demonstrate independence in programming as well as in editorial and management decisions
- Support and develop local arts and music
- Increase community involvement in broadcasting.
